

Jewish Federation[®]
OF WESTERN CONNECTICUT

invites you to attend:

Gender Imbalances and Surprises in American Jewish Life

Presented by Dr. Sylvia Barack Fishman

Prolific author, Jewish Academic Emerita Brandeis University and honored Jewish Scholar

Thursday, November 8, 2018, 6:00-8:00 PM

Harry & Jeanette Weinberg Community Function Hall

444 Main Street North, Southbury, CT 06488

Signature drink & appetizers. Couvert: $18

Over the past 50 years, there has been a transformation for American Jewish women throughout all aspects of their lives.

We will be discussing what changed, how it affects Jewish women and men, and what it means for the American Jewish Community now and in the future.

EVENT CHAIR: Marian Dar

Reserve your spot by November 1, 2018 by calling 203-267-3177, x340. Visit our website at www.jfed.net

Sylvia Barack Fishman

Professor Sylvia Barack Fishman's work explores diverse understandings of Jewish identity, religion, and culture across the centuries, and discusses the interplay of American and Jewish values, transformations in the American Jewish family, the impact of Jewish education, gender and sexuality in American Jewish life, and portrayals of Jews and Jewishness in fiction and film.

She is the author of eight books, including Double Or Nothing? Jewish Families and Mixed Marriage (2004) and Love, Marriage, and Jewish Families: Paradoxes of a Social Revolution (2015).

Jewish Federation®
OF WESTERN CONNECTICUT

444 Main Street North
Southbury, CT 06488
203-267-3177

www.jfed.net